VolkswagenStiftung

Workshop Program

Dec 5, 2019 (Thursday)	3pm: sandwiches/"Stullen"
	3.30-4 pm: Welcome, introductory remarks (Susanne Michl, Anita Wohlmann) and short presentation round
	4-5.30 pm: Work Package A: Time and Space in Data and Stories 1. Arthur Frank: Space and Time in Illness Narratives: The Journey Metaphor and the Usefulness of Narrative Illness Typologies 2. Christine Holmberg: "The Hidden Stories in Epidemiological Risk Predication" 3. Commentary: Danielle Spencer
	5.30-6 pm: Coffee/Light Snacks
	6.00-7.30: Discussion Round: Big Data and Singular Stories: The Problem of Scale at the Bedside with Sebastian Kuhn, Ellen Gugelfuß and Susanne Michl
	8.00 pm: Dinner

Dec 6, 2019 (Friday)	9-9.15: Looking Back and Forward I (Susanne Michl, Anita Wohlmann)
	9.15-10.45 am: Work Package B: Artificial Intelligence, Big Data and Single Stories 1. Kirsten Ostherr: The Human Contexts of Artificial Intelligence in Healthcare 2. Sarah Diner: Socio-technological environments in neuropsychiatric conditions – the impact on symptom perception and presentation 3. Commentary: Sebastian Kuhn
	10.45-11.15: Break/Pause
	11.15-12.15: Lightning Talks I 1. Rory du Plessis: The life stories of the children admitted to the Institute for Imbecile Children, South Africa from 1895 to 1913 2. Natalia Sanchez Querubin: The Wounded Healers of Instagram 3. Joelle Ott, Nikola Biller-Adorno, Andrea Glässel: Barriers and Facilitators from the Perspectives of People with Multiple Sclerosis: A Case based Source Analysis
	12.30-1.30: Lunch
	2:00 pm-3pm: Lightning Talks II 1. Ammina Kothari and Laura Shackelford: Data Sense-Making 2. Rajat Kumar Mishra: Interactive Stories and Data Sciences: A Novel Approach to Mental Healthcare Solutions
	3-4: Coffee + Walk&Talk
	4-5.30: Work Package C: Collecting, Coding and Distant Reading of Data and Stories

	1. Cindie Aaen Maagaard: Tracing Narrative Transformations in Patient Records: Methodological Challenges and Considerations 2. Vera Faßhauer: Exploring an 18th Century Big Data Pool: A Macro Perspective Approach to Senckenberg's Medical Observations 3. Commentary: Katharina Bahlmann 5.30-6.30: Future Collaborations, Publications 7 pm: Dinner 8-9 pm: Drinks and Reading by Danielle Spencer: "Drifting out to Infinity" – Mathematics, Creative Writing and Literary Criticism

Dec 7, 2019 (Saturday)	9-9.15: Looking Back and Forward II (Susanne Michl, Anita Wohlmann) 9.15-10.45: Work Package D: The Problem of Scale in Data and Stories 1. Thomas Weitin: Networks in Literary History: Current Models and Future Data 2. Inge van de Ven: Digital Hermeneutics of Online Self-Expression: Scaled Readings of Depression Discourses 3. Commentary: Elke Greifeneder 10.45: Coffee 11-12.30: Work Package E: Ordering, Serializing and Sequencing of Data and Stories 1. Fritz Breithaupt: Challenges of and for Narrative Medicine: The Case of Adherence 2. Anne Rüggemeier: Between Medical Data and Patients' Stories: The Form of the List and its Critical Remediation in Graphic Illness Narratives 3. Commentary: Anita Wohlmann 12.30-1.00: Summary, closing remarks 1-2.00: Light Lunch/Check out